

Call for co-financing of tuition fee in interdisciplinary doctoral program in Environmental protection for the academic year 2017/2018

The Program Council of doctoral study in Environmental Protection in the academic year 2017/2018 will co-finance tuition fee (3.000,00 €) for up to four students. The candidates who will enrol in the 1st year of the interdisciplinary doctoral study program in Environmental Protection in the academic year 2017/2018 and who do not have co-financed tuition fee from other funds can apply for co-financing.

The tuition fee for the selected student is co-financed for one academic year.

The selection of candidates for co-financing will be based on:

- proposal of the research topic and the consent of the mentor and co-mentor,
- recommendations,
- average grade of previous studies
- evidence of the previous scientific and research work,
- awards,
- motivation letter.

Candidates for the co-financing of the tuition fee shall submit a request for co-financing together with the supplemental documents no later than 26 August 2017, to the following address: Program Council of Environmental protection, University of Ljubljana, Kongresni trg 12, 1000 Ljubljana. There is no need to send the attachments that applicants have submitted with the application for enrolment into the doctoral program Environmental Protection in the academic year 2017/2018.

Candidates will be informed of the results before enrolment. The decision of the Program Council on (non) selection is final.
