Candidate will be informed by the UL member faculty or academy about the habilitation procedure in case of being selected for the position.

3. SUBMISSION DEADLINE

The candidate must submit the application no later than September 11, 2024 at 13:00 CEST at https://studij.uni-lj.si/MR/english/mr_prva.asp. After this deadline, it will no longer be possible to submit an application.

4. APPLICATION METHOD

The candidate submits the application in the University of Ljubljana application at the web address https://studij.uni-lj.si/MR/mr_prva.asp in accordance with the Instructions for Applying for the Call for Applications for Young Researchers, which are part of the call for applications documentation and are also published in the application.

Candidates must first complete and submit the application in accordance with the instructions, following which they must upload all mandatory attachments and the non-mandatory attachments that they have marked in the application and which they want to be considered in the evaluation of their application. The application is considered as complete after all attachments have been uploaded. Candidates will be informed about the successfully submitted complete applications via e-mail in 1 hour after submission.

² In the case of absence due to parental leave, which occurs after the completion of the reference study program, this period shall be extended by the duration of the justified absence. In the case of justified absences, as determined by the regulations on health insurance, this period shall be extended only in the case of an uninterrupted absence of more than six months (an absence of more than six months means at least six months and one day), and then only for the duration of the justified absence.

³ In accordance with Article 53 of the Criteria for Elections to the Titles of University Teachers, Researchers and Associates of the University of Ljubljana, in order to be elected to the title, a candidate must cumulatively meet the general (Article 54), general and special conditions (Article 81) and quantitative conditions (Article 82) for election to the title. The quantitative special condition for the first election to the title of Assistant and Assistant-Researcher is as follows:

"A candidate who has:

completed the last study with an average grade of at least good (8), where the calculation of the average takes into account the grades of all passed exams, exercises and other assessed study obligations, achieved at least a good grade (8) for his or her final thesis, if this is a condition for completing the study."

Individual members of the University of Ljubljana may add additional special conditions to these minimum conditions for election to the title for election to the title in a particular habilitation field, which are published for each member separately at the link.

Mandatory attachments to the application are as follows:

Candidates shall keep up-to-date with all notifications, information and instructions about the tender published by the University of Ljubljana on the website (official website in Slovene) and consider all notifications, information and instructions as integral parts of the tender.

5. CANDIDATE SELECTION

Timely and complete applications submitted by the candidates who meet the tender requirements will qualify for the selection process. Incomplete applications shall be applications submitted by candidates who have not included the documents and evidence as required by this call to tender and applications from which it is impossible to ascertain whether candidates fulfil the tender requirements or not.

Notification of candidates will be carried out via e-mail, communication with candidates also via telephone.

In the selection process, mentors will interview candidates, which will be agreed on via e-mail addresses or telephone numbers provided by candidates as their contact details in the application form.

Candidates will be informed about the decision in accordance with the Employment Relationship Act.

The selected candidates will receive an invitation to respond within three days whether they accept the offered position of young researchers or not. This will be sent to the email address that they have provided in their application therefore, they should be available via e-mail throughout the entire selection process.

6. WARNINGS AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Enrolment into Doctoral degree programmes

The candidates who have not yet enrolled in a doctoral degree programme and will be selected in this tender procedure shall also apply separately for the Call for enrolment into Doctoral degree programmes 2024/2025, which is published on the University of Ljubljana's website. Candidates can submit the application for the tender for enrolment in doctoral programmes electronically on the web portal eVŠ.

Foreign citizens who apply for this call to tender must arrange the entire required documentation for employment in the Republic of Slovenia in accordance with the Slovenian legislation prior to the start of training, which is anticipated for 1 October 2024.

The University of Ljubljana will not enter into the employment contract with:

1. the selected young researcher candidates who do not enrol in an accredited doctoral degree programme in the Republic of Slovenia by 30 September 2024;
2. the selected young researcher candidates who by 15 September 2024 do not complete their study programme with which they will enrol in a doctoral degree programme;
3. the foreign citizens who are selected as young researcher candidates but have not arranged the entire required documentation for employment in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Slovenia prior to the start of employment.

The criteria for evaluating young researcher candidates at the University of Ljubljana are as follows:

- ♦ Candidate interview assessment (up to 5 points);
- ♦ Authorship or co-authorship of (a) published article(s) (an individual article is worth up to 1 point; in the case of co-authorship, 1 point is divided by the number of co-authors and rounded off to two decimal places; for this purpose published articles are only those scientific articles from a relevant scientific field which the University of Ljubljana Members apply in the habilitation process for pedagogic and research titles at the University of Ljubljana (in total, up to 3 points));
- ♦ Collaboration in research work (up to 3 points);
- ♦ Received awards: University of Ljubljana Prešeren Award (1 point), Prešeren Award from a University of Ljubljana Member or another equivalent award from a University of Ljubljana Member (0.5 points), (irrespective of the number of awards, a maximum of 1 point);
- ♦ Average grade of the Master's degree programme or study programme with which the candidate have / will enrol in the doctoral study programme (1 point for an average grade from 9 to 10).

Financing period

The young researcher employment to obtain a Ph.D. (doktor/doktorica znanosti) is financed for a maximum of four years.

If the candidate is enrolled in the 2nd year of the doctoral degree programme in the academic year 2024/2025, the funding period referred to in the previous paragraph shall be shortened by one year.

Refund of tuition fees

A young researcher's employment is terminated: if he loses his student status, if he terminates his training early or in other cases stipulated by labor law. In these cases, the young researcher returns to the UL member half of the funds paid to cover the tuition fees for their doctoral studies until the termination of the employment contract, unless the employment is terminated within the first three months after the start of the training or the UL member decides otherwise. The young researcher is obliged to return the funds from the previous sentence to the UL member if they not complete the doctoral degree programme one year after the end of the employment at the latest, unless the UL member decides otherwise.

7. ENSURING EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The call to tender ensures gender equality and prevents any discrimination of any young researcher candidate.

8. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

By submitting the application, candidates confirm to be familiar with the content of the call to tender and agree with it.

The University of Ljubljana will ensure candidate's personal data protection in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation), the Personal Data Protection Act (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No 163/22 – official consolidated text) and the Rules on the secure processing of personal data at the University of Ljubljana.

For the purpose of this call to tender, the personal data controller is the University of Ljubljana, Kongresni trg 12, 1000 Ljubljana.

Article 6 (b) of the General Data Protection Regulation sets forth that the processing of a natural person's personal data is lawful if it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party, or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract. Personal data obtained from candidates' applications will be processed for the purpose of implementing this call to tender.

The University of Ljubljana will process the following personal data of candidates: name and surname, date of birth, permanent address, temporary address, telephone/mobile phone number, e-mail address, citizenship, previously obtained academic qualification(s) in the Republic of Slovenia or abroad, doctoral degree programme, and other evidence submitted by candidates in order to prove their fulfilment of the tender requirements (medical certificates, parental leave utilization certificates) and/or in order for evidence to be taken into consideration in the assessment of candidates' applications (evidence of awards, evidence of authorship and co-authorship of scientific articles, and a description of candidates' previous collaboration on research work).

The processing of personal data of non-selected candidates ceases within 2 years from the day of the final decision on selection, and the personal data of selected candidates are stored permanently in accordance with the Employment Relationships Act.

A candidate can request access to their personal data at any time, rectification of information, restriction of data processing and implementation of the right to transfer data. The candidate can exercise these rights in writing or by e-mail of the authorized person for personal data protection at the University of Ljubljana to dpo@uni-lj.si. If the candidate believes their rights regarding personal data are not properly guaranteed, they can appeal to the Information Commissioner (more information).
