

GRADING SYSTEM FOR SELECTION at the Call for Enrolment

If the number of candidates meeting the enrolment criteria exceeds the number of places available, the candidates will be selected in line with the criteria determined on the 16th session of the Programme Council Biomedicine (16 February 2023).

Average grade of all grades from a study programme leading to an academic higher education qualification, adopted before 11 June 2004, or an integrated master's degree programme or a second-cycle study programme	average grade x 10
A published or accepted for publication scientific article in a journal with a review: - articles published in a journal with an impact factor from the Journal Citation Reports (JCR) database in quarters 1 and 2 of the field (12 points); - articles published in a journal with an impact factor from the Journal Citation Reports (JCR) database in quarters 3 and 4 of the field (6 points); - articles with external review without an impact factor (2 points).	up to 30 points in total Points for an individual article are given according to the authorship: - the first author gets all the points - the co-author gets 50% of the points
Prešeren Award at UL ¹	10
Prešeren Award at a faculty or Krka Award ¹	6
Other faculty awards and recognitions ¹	3
Awards at international competitions ²	up to 6 points in total
Awards at domestic competitions ²	up to 3 points in total
Presentations at conferences and symposia	up to 2 points in total
Professional specialisation	12
Other relevant achievements (e.g. interview, selection at other calls – young researchers, project-based employment, assistants; other exceptional achievements, recommendations ...)	up to 30 points in total

¹ In accordance with the proportional division of points if there are more authors.

² Only awards received during the time of study or later will be considered.

In the event of restricted enrolment, the candidates with more points will be selected.