In view of the current epidemiological situation regarding COVID-19 and in accordance with the NIJZ guidelines and recommendations for safe teaching and scientific research work, I, Prof. Igor Papič, Rector of the University of Ljubljana, hereby issue the following recommendations:

1. The teaching process and research shall be carried out online wherever possible.
2. If this is not possible due to the nature of the work, follow the infection prevention protocol:

 - follow the preventive measures in all common areas;
 - switch to working from home if the 1.5 m distance requirement cannot be observed due to limited room size.

4. Contact sports, as part of the teaching process or as recreation at the University Sports Hall, are not advised.

I reiterate: if you have symptoms of COVID-19, stay at home and follow the NIJZ recommendations:
