Scholarships World Program

With the aim of promoting the international relationships of the Milan University system, the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart and the Chamber of Commerce assign scholarships to qualified candidates coming from those areas which are in the general interest for the Milanese economic system (Latin America, Mediterranean area, East Europe, Asia) for purposes of admission to Master's and PhD's programs

The scholarships comprise:

1. 50% waiver for the Master's fees.
2. € 5.000 as a contribution for housing and living expenses. The grant will be paid directly to the student in two instalments of € 2.500 each (the first at the courses starting date, the other at mid-term considering a student who regularly pays the fees).
